Abstract Notification.

The attention of the public is invited to the Notification calling for tender for the Supply of Furniture to the Library of the Office of the Director of Agriculture in Mysore, Bangalore, published in Part VI, Mysore Gazette, page 438, dated 20th April 1933.

M. G. SINGARACHAR,
Agricultural Engineer.

MYSORE SERUM INSTITUTE, HEBBAL, BANGALORE.

Tender Notice, dated 14th April 1933, for the Supply of Miscellaneous Articles.

Sealed tenders are invited for the supply of miscellaneous articles required for the Mysore Serum Institute at Hebbal, Bangalore, during the official year from 1st July 1933 to 30th June 1934, and will be received in the Office of the undersigned up to 3-30 P.M on Monday the 12th June 1933. The tenders should be sent in a sealed cover superscribed "Tenders for the Supply of Miscellaneous articles for Serum Institute during the official year 1933-34."

2. The approximate quantities and description of the articles required are given in the subjoined statement and the tenderer should quote his rates against each item per quantity mentioned. Tenders not conforming to this will not be considered.

3. Every tenderer should deposit in the State Huzur Treasury, Bangalore, a sum of Rs. 100 as earnest money deposit towards the tender in favour of the Officer in charge, Mysore Serum Institute, Bangalore, and the treasury receipt obtained therefor should accompany the tender, without which, the tender will not be considered.

4. Tender rates quoted should include the cost of delivery of the articles at the Institute premises at Hebbal or at the Institute Reserve Depot.

5. The quantities given in the accompanying statement are only approximate and the actual quantities to be supplied during the year may be more or less. If quantities more than these mentioned in the schedule are required, the successful tenderer is bound to supply such additional quantities at the accepted tender rates. If articles other than those mentioned in the list are required, he should supply them also at the market rates prevailing at the time of placing orders.

6. No claim for any compensation or enhancement of rates on any account shall be entertained during the contract period.

7. Samples of the required articles are available in the institute stores for inspection by the tenderers during office hours.

8. The successful tenderer should be prepared to supply such quantities of various articles as may be required from time to time, upon indents from the Officer in charge of the Institute, such indents being complied with, within two days from the date of their receipt.

9. The undersigned does not bind himself to accept the lowest or any tender or to assign any reason whatever for the rejection of any tender.

10. The tenders will be opened by the undersigned at 3-50 P.M. on Monday the 12th June 1933 in the presence of such tenderers as may choose to attend.

11. The name of the successful tenderer will be intimated in due course and he will be required to execute an agreement bond on a ten anna stamp paper depositing a sum equal to five per cent of the value of the tender as security deposit, for the due fulfilment of the contract within seven days from the date of intimation of the acceptance of the tender.

12. Bill for the supplies made during the month should be sent early for auditing and arranging payment. The total of bills amounting to Rs. 25 or more will be rounded to the nearest rupee, i.e., fractions of less than half a rupee will be disregarded and half a rupee and over taken as a rupee. The totals of bills less than Rs. 25 will be rounded to the nearest anna.

13. The articles supplied should be good and conform to the samples to be seen in the Institute and will be liable to be rejected if they do not serve the purpose of the Institute.

14. The earnest money deposited with the tender will be forfeited to the Government if the tenderer whose tender is accepted fails to execute the necessary agreement bond. The earnest money of the unsuccessful tenderers will be returned in due course. After acceptance of one of the tenders, the earnest money deposit of the successful tenderer will be refunded to him after his executing the necessary agreement bond. Should the successful tenderer fail to comply with any of the conditions stipulated above his contract shall be forthwith cancelled, and the money deposited will be forfeited to the Government. Further, the undersigned reserves the right to purchase the articles required, in the open market against him, at his risk and expenses and claim damages, in the event of the successful tenderer failing to fulfil his contract within the specified time. But the contractor will have no right to participate in the profits if any by such purchases.

15. The rate quoted for each article mentioned in the subjoined list will be considered as a separate tender by itself.
